JOURNAL OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL Friday - 13 October 1967 1. Spoke with Mr. Bernard J. Fensterwald, hief Counsel, Senate Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure, oncerning the progress of S. 928, the Administration's wiretapping and eavestopping bill, and other related measures. (See Memorandum for the Record.) 2. Accompanied Dave Brandwein to a briefing of easiers. Conway and Murphy, of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, response to a letter from Mr. Conway requesting our comment on a saw York Times article having to do with Soviet capabilities for deorbiting clear weapons. Mr. Brandwein handled the matter quite thoroughly and impetently and it was not necessary to leave with the staff members any written documentation. In the course of conversation, Mr. Conway brought is several other subjects such as the status of the Soviet submarine fleet, detheir nuclear weapons capabilities. He said he would like these included the next DCI briefing of the Joint Committee which he hopes can be heduled before the congressional adjournment. Mr. Conway did not mention	Apploted to release	2004/03/11 : CIA-RDP69B00369R000200170005-1	7.
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL Friday - 13 October 1967 Spoke with Mr. Bernard J. Fensterwald, mief Counsel, Senate Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure, micerning the progress of S. 928, the Administration's wiretapping and eavestopping bill, and other related measures. (See Memorandum for the Record.) 2. Accompanied Dave Brandwein to a briefing of easers. Conway and Murphy, of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, response to a letter from Mr. Conway requesting our comment on a law York Times article having to do with Soviet capabilities for deorbiting clear weapons. Mr. Brandwein handled the matter quite thoroughly and mpetently and it was not necessary to leave with the staff members any witten documentation. In the course of conversation, Mr. Conway brought several other subjects such as the status of the Soviet submarine fleet, d their nuclear weapons capabilities. He said he would like these included the next DCI briefing of the Joint Committee which he hopes can be		SECRET	Canal Inc.
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL Friday - 13 October 1967 1. Spoke with Mr. Bernard J. Fensterwald, mief Counsel, Senate Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure, oncerning the progress of S. 928, the Administration's wiretapping and eavestopping bill, and other related measures. (See Memorandum for the Record.) 2. Accompanied Dave Brandwein to a briefing of easers. Conway and Murphy, of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, response to a letter from Mr. Conway requesting our comment on a saw York Times article having to do with Soviet capabilities for deorbiting clear weapons. Mr. Brandwein handled the matter quite thoroughly and mpetently and it was not necessary to leave with the staff members any ritten documentation. In the course of conversation, Mr. Conway brought several other subjects such as the status of the Soviet submarine fleet, d their nuclear weapons capabilities. He said he would like these included the next DCI briefing of the Joint Committee which he hopes can be	:		,
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL Friday - 13 October 1967 Spoke with Mr. Bernard J. Fensterwald, hief Counsel, Senate Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure, oncerning the progress of S. 928, the Administration's wiretapping and eavestopping bill, and other related measures. (See Memorandum for the Record.) 2 Accompanied Dave Brandwein to a briefing of essrs. Conway and Murphy, of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, response to a letter from Mr. Conway requesting our comment on a sew York Times article having to do with Soviet capabilities for deorbiting clear weapons. Mr. Brandwein handled the matter quite thoroughly and impetently and it was not necessary to leave with the staff members any ritten documentation. In the course of conversation, Mr. Conway brought asseveral other subjects such as the status of the Soviet submarine fleet, d their nuclear weapons capabilities. He said he would like these included the next DCI briefing of the Joint Committee which he hopes can be
Spoke with Mr. Bernard J. Fensterwald, hief Counsel, Senate Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure, processing the progress of S. 928, the Administration's wiretapping and eavestopping bill, and other related measures. (See Memorandum for the Record.) 2. Accompanied Dave Brandwein to a briefing of essrs. Conway and Murphy, of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, response to a letter from Mr. Conway requesting our comment on a sew York Times article having to do with Soviet capabilities for deorbiting clear weapons. Mr. Brandwein handled the matter quite thoroughly and impetently and it was not necessary to leave with the staff members any eitten documentation. In the course of conversation, Mr. Conway brought as several other subjects such as the status of the Soviet submarine fleet, d their nuclear weapons capabilities. He said he would like these included the next DCI briefing of the Joint Committee which he hopes can be		JOURNAL
Spoke with Mr. Bernard J. Fensterwald, hief Counsel, Senate Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure, oncerning the progress of S. 928, the Administration's wiretapping and eavestopping bill, and other related measures. (See Memorandum for the Record.) 2. Accompanied Dave Brandwein to a briefing of essrs. Conway and Murphy, of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, response to a letter from Mr. Conway requesting our comment on a sew York Times article having to do with Soviet capabilities for deorbiting clear weapons. Mr. Brandwein handled the matter quite thoroughly and empetently and it was not necessary to leave with the staff members any extend documentation. In the course of conversation, Mr. Conway brought a several other subjects such as the status of the Soviet submarine fleet, d their nuclear weapons capabilities. He said he would like these included the next DCI briefing of the Joint Committee which he hopes can be	OFFICE O	F LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL
hief Counsel, Senate Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure, oncerning the progress of S. 928, the Administration's wiretapping and eavestopping bill, and other related measures. (See Memorandum for the Record.) 2. Accompanied Dave Brandwein to a briefing of essrs. Conway and Murphy, of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, response to a letter from Mr. Conway requesting our comment on a ew York Times article having to do with Soviet capabilities for deorbiting clear weapons. Mr. Brandwein handled the matter quite thoroughly and empetently and it was not necessary to leave with the staff members any eitten documentation. In the course of conversation, Mr. Conway brought a several other subjects such as the status of the Soviet submarine fleet, d their nuclear weapons capabilities. He said he would like these included the next DCI briefing of the Joint Committee which he hopes can be	Fr	iday - 13 October 1967
hief Counsel, Senate Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure, oncerning the progress of S. 928, the Administration's wiretapping and eavestopping bill, and other related measures. (See Memorandum for the Record.) 2. Accompanied Dave Brandwein to a briefing of essrs. Conway and Murphy, of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, response to a letter from Mr. Conway requesting our comment on a ew York Times article having to do with Soviet capabilities for deorbiting clear weapons. Mr. Brandwein handled the matter quite thoroughly and empetently and it was not necessary to leave with the staff members any eitten documentation. In the course of conversation, Mr. Conway brought a several other subjects such as the status of the Soviet submarine fleet, d their nuclear weapons capabilities. He said he would like these included the next DCI briefing of the Joint Committee which he hopes can be date but merely wished to alert us to the fact that they would like to have	hief Counsel, Senate Subconcerning the progress of ropping bill, and other recessors. Conway and Murpheresponse to a letter from we York Times article had aclear weapons. Mr. Brackers documentation. In a several other subjects so the next DCI briefing of the heduled before the congress	Sommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedur S. 928, the Administration's wiretapping and eaves lated measures. (See Memorandum for the Record Accompanied Dave Brandwein to a briefing of hy, of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, in Mr. Conway requesting our comment on a ving to do with Soviet capabilities for deorbiting andwein handled the matter quite thoroughly and necessary to leave with the staff members any the course of conversation, Mr. Conway brought uch as the status of the Soviet submarine fleet, capabilities. He said he would like these included the Joint Committee which he hopes can be essional adjournment. Mr. Conway did not mention	e, - .)
	4	Picked up from Senator Stuart Symington's
		- ' '	, 2
4. Picked up from Senator Stuart Symington's fice three letters from the Senator for Agency delivery to and Ted Shackley.	olonel Brower will be acc	Talked with Jim Kendall, Senate Prepare nittee staff, who indicated it is very possible that ompanying the Subcommittee staff group and, if at to have Brower participate in the Agency briefings	ed-

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

abroad. I said I was sure this could be arranged.